Consequences:

Teachers will write Dress Code Violations when they observe students wearing items that are clearly a violation of the Dress Code. Students will be sent to the Assistant Principal's Office where they will be asked to change inappropriate articles (Granite Hills shirts will be provided) or will be sent home to dress properly. Headgear confiscated will be placed in storage until pick-up at the end of each semester. NO EXCEPTIONS. Consequences will range from a change of clothing provided by the school to suspension. In extreme cases, a parent will be called to bring a change of clothing. The student will be expected to make an exchange for the inappropriate clothing after school. Continuous defiance of the dress code may result in after-school detention to suspension. The school, at no time, is responsible for confiscated items. Dress Code Checks will be conducted throughout the school year. (Intercom announcement and teachers will send dress code violators to the Assistant Principal's Office.)
